

Use case	Change language
Release (id)	UC-15, v1.0, 26 April 2026
Context of Use	Any user can change the language interface to better understand and use the system (FR7)
Scope	Allow users to select and utilize the system in their preferred language (FR7)
Level	Primary task
Primary actor	Users
StakeHolder & interest	StakeHolder	Interest
	User	Needs to access the system with their preferred language to understand any action
	Railway administrator	Wants the system accessible even for international users
Preconditions	→ The user accesses the system → The system support multiple languages
Minimal Guarantees	→ The system remains usable → Default language is preserved
Success Guarantees	→ The interface is updated to the selected language
Trigger	The user selects the “ Change language ” button
Description (Main Success Scenario)	Step	Action
	1	The user selects the “ Change language ” button
	2	The system asks for the desired language, among the available ones
	3	The user select the preferred language
	4	The system updates the interface in the desired language
Extension	Step	Other action
	3a	If the selected language is already active the system keeps the current language
	4a	If an error occurs during update the system reverts to the previous language and shows “ Error loading this language ”
	4b	If the user is authenticated, the system stores the language preference in the user profile and sets it as default one
Technology & data Variations	If the system detects a browser/device language, it may pre-select a default language at startup	